Joshua Lehn

Joshua,

On behalf of the Minnesota High Tech Association (MHTA) and the Minnesota High Tech Foundation (MHTF), we would like to congratulate you on your selection as a recipient of the Thomson Reuters Computer Science Scholarship!

The MHTA/MHTF Corporate Scholarship program seeks businesses to provide scholarship opportunities for Minnesota students studying science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) disciplines. Your scholarship totals _____, and will be awarded directly to your school in your name. In addition to the scholarship, Jennifer Hauschildt, Foundation Board Member and Vice President & Chief Technical Officer of FindLaw at Thomson Reuters will be contacting you regarding potential internships.

We also invite you and a guest to join us at the MHTA Spring Conference on Wednesday, April 25, 2012 where you will be formally recognized and presented with your scholarship in front of more than 1,200 technology executives gathered to recognize innovation and technology.

Please save the date for MHTA Spring Conference and see the pages that follow for the scholarship terms and conditions.

Again, our sincere congratulations and best wishes. We look forward to recognizing you as a Thomson Reuters scholar and following your transition from college student to STEM professional!
